Charles Petter was a cabinet maker and timber merchant. Louisa's father also was a timber merchant while he lived in Prussia. He died before they emigrated to England (assumption). Charles was widowed between 1881 & 1891 and lost his daughter, Ruth, during that time too. Louisa married Charles in 1893 and we find them on the 1901 Census with the younger children of his previous marriage but no children of their own, presumably Louisa was too old to conceive or became his wife to care for the children only.
