The question is, why did John and Christian go to Bideford to get married, a town some 10 or so miles away. It now seems obvious that they did not give their proper surnames when registering for their marriage there. Their daughter, Mary, was supposedly born about 8 months after their marriage so they would not yet have known that Christian was pregnant. However, they do come back to St. Giles-in-the-Wood to have their children.

"1730 - 1740

Henry Brinsmead whose first wife Elizabeth Vodden died in 1727, remarried, this time to Frances Clarke on December 10, 1733. Their first child Francis was born in 1734, followed by Henry, born 1736 and Mary born 1737. We have no original transcription for any of these births.

The two couples, Robert and Grace and Henry and Francis, yield the first division in the Devon Brinsmead's family tree.

At the end of the decade, the family groupings were, as far as we know:

Mary Copp

Christian (aged 47) [This is not correct as Christian married John Vodden, brother to Elizabeth & Grace.]

Robert and Grace's line

Robert (aged 44) and Grace (aged 39)

Henry (aged 20)

Grace (aged 17)

Robert (aged 13)

Margaret (aged 7)

Mary (aged 21) and John Copp

Henry and Francis' line

Henry (aged 42) and Francis (Clarke)

Francis (age 6)

Henry (age 4)

Mary (age 3)

In 1735, a village resident, Charles Beere died and left in his will, two annual gifts to the poor of the parish. He charged two properties, Higher Hill (a house on the rise just south of the village) and Lower Hill each for 20s. per year, to be distributed to the poor - "labouring men or such persons as should have no relief" - each Christmas and Easter. "

b) Frances CLARK is mother of: Henry BRINSMEAD (*1739), Thomas BRINSMEAD (*1740), Mary BRINSMEAD (*1742), Mary BRINSMEAD (*1743), Elizabeth BRINSMEAD (*1747) and Ann BRINSMEAD (*1749)

"1690 - 1700
On August 5, 1690, Henry Brinsmead married Mary Sims. He appears to have been 48 years old, while she was about 24. The records give no indication of her being from outside the parish and there were several Sims family members listed in St. Giles in the Wood at the time.
Henry and Mary had four children over the next eight years:
Christian, baptized on June 16, 1691. We assume that this Christian must have died in infancy since a sister is given the same name in 1693. The death records for these years are very hard to read.
Christian, baptized on October 25, 1693
Robert, baptized on May 6, 1696
Henry baptized on Nov 16, 1698
Thus, at the end of the century the Brinsmeads in St. Giles in the Wood were Henry and Mary Brinsmead and their three surviving children Christian, aged 7, Robert, aged 4 and Henry, aged 2. We presume they lived at the farm at Dodscott, but have no proof of this.
Elsewhere in the village, in 1697 Sir John Rolle of Stevenstone, Knight of the Bath donated a Tenor Bell to St. Giles church."

Accessed <http://www.brinsmead.net/timeline/17001710.htm> - May 28, 2014
"1700 - 1710
The new century started rather poorly for the Brinsmeads of St. Giles in the Wood. Henry Brinsmead died in 1700, leaving Mary Brinsmead (nee Sims), his widow, with three young children - Christian, born in 1693, Robert, born in 1696, and Henry born in 1698. Henry and Mary had married ten years earlier.
Henry left a will, probated in the Barnstable Archdeaconry in 1701 but we have been unable to obtain a copy. It appears to have been one of the Devon wills destroyed in Exeter by bombing in WW2.
While we have no direct record of this, we presume the family lived at Dodscott, just east of the St. Giles village.
Two years later, on December 10th, 1702, Mary Brinsmead remarried, this time to Archelus Copp. There is no record of their having additional children. So, at the end of the decade it appears that Mary Copp is about 44, and she has three children, Christian, age 17, Robert, aged 14 and Henry, aged 12.
Elsewhere in the village, Sir John Rolle died in 1706. By the time of his death, when his estate passed to his grandson John Rolle, he owned 45 Manors in Devon and Cornwall. His land holdings included almost all of St. Giles in the Wood, although not the Brinsmead property at Dodscott. "

"1710 - 1720
The only major event we know of in this decade is the marriage, in October, 1719 of Robert Brinsmead to Grace Vodden in St. Giles in the Wood. They had their first child Mary a little earlier since she was baptized March 17, 1718/19.
By the end of the decade, Robert, now aged 24 is married to Grace and they have the one child, Mary. Henry, now 22 is still single. We do not have a record of Christian aged 27, who is perhaps married.
Elsewhere in the Village, in 1710 Robert Lovett, Esq. gave £30 for binding out apprentices to the handicraft trades."

"1720 - 1730
We know nothing of what happened to Mary and Archilus Copp during this decade although they were still alive.
Robert and Grace have additional children:
Henry, baptised Jan 15, 1720/21
Grace, baptised in 1723
Robert, baptised on August 26, 1727
They were all born in St. Giles in the Wood so we presume they continued to live near the village, probably at Dodscott.
Robert's younger brother Henry Brinsmead married Elizabeth Vooden on October 3, 1726. Elizabeth died the next year, before they had children.
We have no information about where Robert and Grace's family lived during this period, although it is probable that at least some of them stayed at Dodscott.
At the end of the decade, the family groupings were, as far as we know:
Mary and Archillus Copp
Christian (aged 37)
Robert (aged 34) and Grace (aged 29)
Mary (aged 11)
Henry (aged 10)

Grace (aged 7)
Robert (aged 3)
Henry (widower, aged 32)"

"1730 - 1740

The two couples, Robert and Grace and Henry and Francis, yield the first division in the Devon Brinsmead's family tree.

At the end of the decade, the family groupings were, as far as we know:

Mary Copp:

Christian (aged 47) [This is not correct as Christian married John Vodden, brother to Elizabeth & Grace.]

Robert and Grace's line:

Robert (aged 44) and Grace (aged 39)

Henry (aged 20)

Grace (aged 17)

Robert (aged 13)

Margaret (aged 7)

Mary (aged 21) and John Copp

Henry and Francis' line:

Henry (aged 42) and Francis (Clarke)

Francis (age 6)

Henry (age 4)

Mary (age 3)

In 1735, a village resident, Charles Beere died and left in his will, two annual gifts to the poor of the parish. He charged two properties, Higher Hill (a house on the rise just south of the village) and Lower Hill each for 20s. per year, to be distributed to the poor - "labouring men or such persons as should have no relief" - each Christmas and Easter. "

"1770 - 1780

Robert Brinsmead died in St. Giles in the Wood in 1774, leaving Grace, his widow."

"1750 - 1760
During this decade, Robert Brinsmead married Jane Bennett of St. Giles. He was a Cooper by trade. Soon after they married they moved to Huntshaw, a village a few miles to the North of St. Giles, just South of Alverdiscott. There they had a son John, born in 1757. (John's parentage is not listed in our transcription of his baptism record. However, it is listed in his burial record three years later.)"
