"1730 - 1740

Henry Brinsmead whose first wife Elizabeth Vodden died in 1727, remarried, this time to Frances Clarke on December 10, 1733. Their first child Francis was born in 1734, followed by Henry, born 1736 and Mary born 1737. We have no original transcription for any of these births.

The two couples, Robert and Grace and Henry and Francis, yield the first division in the Devon Brinsmead's family tree.

At the end of the decade, the family groupings were, as far as we know:

Mary Copp

Christian (aged 47) [This is not correct as Christian married John Vodden, brother to Elizabeth & Grace.]

Robert and Grace's line

Robert (aged 44) and Grace (aged 39)

Henry (aged 20)

Grace (aged 17)

Robert (aged 13)

Margaret (aged 7)

Mary (aged 21) and John Copp

Henry and Francis' line

Henry (aged 42) and Francis (Clarke)

Francis (age 6)

Henry (age 4)

Mary (age 3)

In 1735, a village resident, Charles Beere died and left in his will, two annual gifts to the poor of the parish. He charged two properties, Higher Hill (a house on the rise just south of the village) and Lower Hill each for 20s. per year, to be distributed to the poor - "labouring men or such persons as should have no relief" - each Christmas and Easter. "

b) Frances CLARK is mother of: Henry BRINSMEAD (*1739), Thomas BRINSMEAD (*1740), Mary BRINSMEAD (*1742), Mary BRINSMEAD (*1743), Elizabeth BRINSMEAD (*1747) and Ann BRINSMEAD (*1749)
